Sir:

DECLARATION IIIB UNDER 37 C.F.R. §1.132

Alan K. Schrock declares and states:

THAT, he and Zenon Lysenko, David A. Babb, Donald L. Morrison, Donald L. Bunning, Christopher W. Derstine, James H. Gilchrist, H. Ray Jouett, Jeffrey S. Kanel, Kurt D. Olson, Wei-Jun Peng, Joe D. Phillips, Brian R. Roesch, Aaron W. Sanders, and Pulikkottil J. Thomas are the inventors of the subject technology of the above-captioned patent application;

THAT, in 1979 he received a Bachelors of Science in Chemistry from University of West Florida, and in 1984 he received a Ph.D. in Organic Chemistry from University of Illinois;

THAT, from 1984 through the current date he has worked for The Dow Chemical Company in Core Research & Development (1984-1987), as a Group Leader and Senior Scientist in Polyurethanes R&D (1987-2003), as a Senior Scientist in Performance Chemicals and Thermosets (2004-2006), then again as a Senior Scientist in Polyurethanes R&D, and since 2008 in his current position as Director, Polyurethanes Product R&D;

THAT, he is aware of the Office Action dated July 23, 2008 in the above-identified patent application;

THAT, he is also familiar with the comparative experiments that were conducted under the supervision of David A. Babb and submitted in Declaration I (revised) and Declaration II, both filed April 30, 2008;

US Patent Application No. 10/551,854
Declaration IIIB Under 37 C.F.R. §1.132

THAT, he has read the statements made by David A. Babb in Declaration IIIA, filed concurrently herewith, wherein David A. Babb explains how certain differences in the design of the experiments presented in Declaration II, as compared with the design of the experiments presented in Declaration I, would have an inconsequential effect on the outcome of the comparison presented in Declarations I and II;

THAT, he fully concurs with the statements made in Declaration IIIA by David A. Babb supporting the comparison presented in Declarations I and II.

The undersigned DECLARANT declares further that all statements made herein of his own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements are made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application of any patent issuing thereon.
